

Without diversity in voice, we open ourselves to the dangers of a singular perspective. Our freedoms are not granted and imperishable. Only by many voices can we determine when freedoms are misused and when they are threatened. Only by having a voice can we speak. Please, don't place our media in the hands of a few or worse yet one corporation.

Thank you for listening!
Thank you for letting us speak!

C.T. Thieme
Writer